

“Launching the Global Initiative”

Conference: Organized Crime Priorities

Thursday, September 19, 2013, 0930-1730, Conference Room 5, United Nations, New York

Draft Agenda

Thursday 19th September

- 0900 - 0945      Registration for UN Security Passes, Coffee/Tea
- 1000 – 1100      Session 1: Welcome and Keynote Address
- Welcome and introduction of Global Initiative – Mark Shaw
  - Keynote address, Moisés Naím, Carnegie Endowment for Peace
- 1100 – 1300      Session 2: Panel Discussion: Organized Crime, Democracy, Development, and State Fragility
- Moderator: Mark Shaw
- Panelists: Vidar Helgesen, Sec. General: International IDEA
Sarah Cliffe, Special Adviser and Assistant Sec. General, United Nations
James Cockayne, UN University
Additional Panelist (tbc)
- Q&A, discussion
- 1300 – 1430      Lunch

- 1430 – 1545      Session 3: Presentation of a Global Initiative Draft Report on Environmental Crime
Moderator: (tbd)
Presenter: Justin Gosling, Consultant
Commentators: John Sellar OBE, Independent Expert
Julian Rademeyer, Author, Journalist

Q&A, discussion
- 1545 – 1745      Session 4: Panel Discussion: Countering the Cybercrime Avalanche
Moderator: (tbd)
Panelists: Troels Oerting, Head: European Cybercrime Centre
Raj Samani, CTO, EMEA at McAfee
John Suffolk, Global Head of Cyber Security, Huawei
(tbc)

Q&A and discussion
- 1745              Concluding comments: Mark Shaw, Global Initiative
- 1800 – 2000      Cocktail function and launch of the Global Initiative
Venue: International Peace Institute, 12th floor, Church Center, 777 UN Plaza (corner First Avenue & 44th Street)

Welcome: Terje Rød Larsen, President, International Peace Institute
Statements: H.E. Ambassador Geir Pedersen, Permanent Representative of Norway to the United Nations
H. E. the Permanent Representative of Mexico to the United Nations (tbc)
Vote of thanks: Mark Shaw

